

Friends of Unity

Peace Pilgrim, not long ago, walked through Lee's Summit, Missouri, and stopped at Unity School to speak to the Unity students. She left her blessing of peace and love with them.

You may see her walking through your town or along the highway—a silver-haired woman dressed in navy blue slacks and shirt and a short tunic with pockets all around the bottom, in which she carries her only worldly possessions. In white letters on the front of the tunic is written "PEACE PILGRIM" and on the back, "25,000 MILES ON FOOT FOR WORLD PEACE." She has finished walking those miles, but she continues to walk, for her vow is: "I shall remain a wanderer until mankind has learned the way of peace, walking until I am given shelter and fasting until I am given food." She walks without a penny in her pockets and she is not affiliated with any organization. She walks as a prayer and as a chance to inspire others to pray and work with her for peace. She speaks to individuals along the way, to groups in cities, through the medium of the news services. She points out that this is a crisis-period in human history, and that we who live in the world today must choose between a nuclear war or a golden age of peace.
