

(Kansas City Star/Times, Nov. 2, 1955)

WALKING FOR PEACE, a woman who has completed 7,100 miles of an intended 10,000-mile trip arrived yesterday in Kansas City. The woman, who prefers to be known only as Peace Pilgrim, travels without money and depends on the charity of individuals to supply shelter and food. She wears blue slacks, blouse and tunic. The tunic has "Walking 10,000 Miles for World Disarmament" across the back and "Peace Pilgrim" across the front—(Kansas City Star photograph).
