

Walking For Human Peace

10/25
1992

A FRIENDLY WOMAN who gives her name only as the "Peace Pilgrim" was in Princeton again last week to speak at the Quaker Meeting House. "I walk on the endless energy that comes from inner peace," she said. Her travels are prayer that mankind may learn the way of peace, she explained, which is "realizing your human potential and fitting it into the greater plan."